The notice will be filed momentarily and the deposition will proceed at noon today - you withdrawal of you notice two hours in advance does not cancel the deposition, just you're right to proceed with your notice.

What prior TVT -Exact deposition are you referring to? You failed to take one in Wave 1 and Wave 2 so no deposition exists.

> Fidelma--It is our understanding that Plaintiffs have not adopted Dr. Blaivas' TVT-Exact general report for Wave 3 cases and he has not issued a separate report for Wave 3 cases. Thus, there is no general deposition that need be taken of Dr. Blaivas in Wave 3 for TVT-Exact. We have cancelled the deposition and the court reporter and will issue a notice of cancellation momentarily. Because the deposition is cancelled, we will not be making an appearance. Should you decide to take Dr. Blaivas' deposition, please serve a notice and provide dates. Thanks.

>> Tracy - we will conduct an exam on Dr Blaivas in all Wave 3 cases on all products today pursuant to your notice. I understand that you are waiving your right to so examine pursuant to that notice but the Plaintiffs are not prepared to also waive their rights. We will arrange for a reporter to be present as I understand that you have cancelled yours. Please let me know if you wish to attend in person or by phone.
